

The conscientious boy

Comparison: The man green of algae

Analysis

Both fairy tales have two shipwrecked persons as protagonists on a island, which bring them luck and happiness. For one the marriage with the princess, for the other the kingdom. All this after winning one or more tests; for the Italian fairy tale of the octopus and of the captain, for the pakistani fable the proof of the magic forest. In both fairy tales predominant colours are the blue of the sea and the green of the forest and algae.
