

The man and the crocodile

Classification: H30; P40;

Comparison: Italian traditional fairy tale: The green man of algae (I.Calvino)

Analysis:

In both versions the theme of the journey appears and in particular in an aquatic environment. In order to save themselves, the two protagonists must free themselves and struggle with dangerous animals that want to keep them imprisoned in their kingdom. In the story of Sudan, man saves only himself, while in the Italian version he is able to free the king's daughter.
